

Tri Awareness 11/8/11

Teen Center Grand opening: great success. Eastlake PTSA/school well recognized for the $3,000 donation. (I was proud). We had our name on the donor wall, foosball table, and a computer station. High school students can drop in to check it out and get a week free. They will have special HS nights only, no junior high age when special events are going on.

I challenged other schools, IJH, Skyline, Eastside Catholic to step up. IJH PTSA donated $1,500 the next day!

Youth Board meeting: next meeting is Wed. the 16th 6:00-7:00 encouraging HS students to attend it will be held at the Teen Center-can check it out.

Kiwanis: will be hosting Santa Breakfast Saturday Dec. 3rd 8:45-10:00 AM

Sammi awards: March 16, 2011 Nominations are open until Dec. 10th trying to focus on the “youth” of the community to recognize get more teen nominations, teens voting for teens. Offering businesses $100 sponsorship opportunity which gets business cards in the Sammi program. Visit www.sammiawards.org for more details.

Eastside Catholic: is holding an open house on 11/15 6:30-8:30 PM for middle school only.

Rotary Club has Scholarships to be given out and not just for 4.0 students, for unique individuals and special activities. Website <http://sammamishrotary.org/>

From: Tim Larson to Triawareness Group:

My wife’s TV show has started a new segment called “New Day Hero’s”, or something like that, which will honor young people between 13 and 25 for their good works. She’s looking for do-gooders who provide some admirable service that entails compassion, etc.

Shoes to Sudan Trying to collect 13 tons of shoes to help water filtration systems in South Sudan. klcsouthsudan.blogspot.com

They can collect & recycle: Men’s women’s, and children’s shoes. Cleats, sandals, dress shoes and athletic shoes alike. What they cannot collect or recycle: Shoes with holes, plastic “flip-flop” sandals, “croc” rubber boots, and any women’s fashion boots above the ankle.
